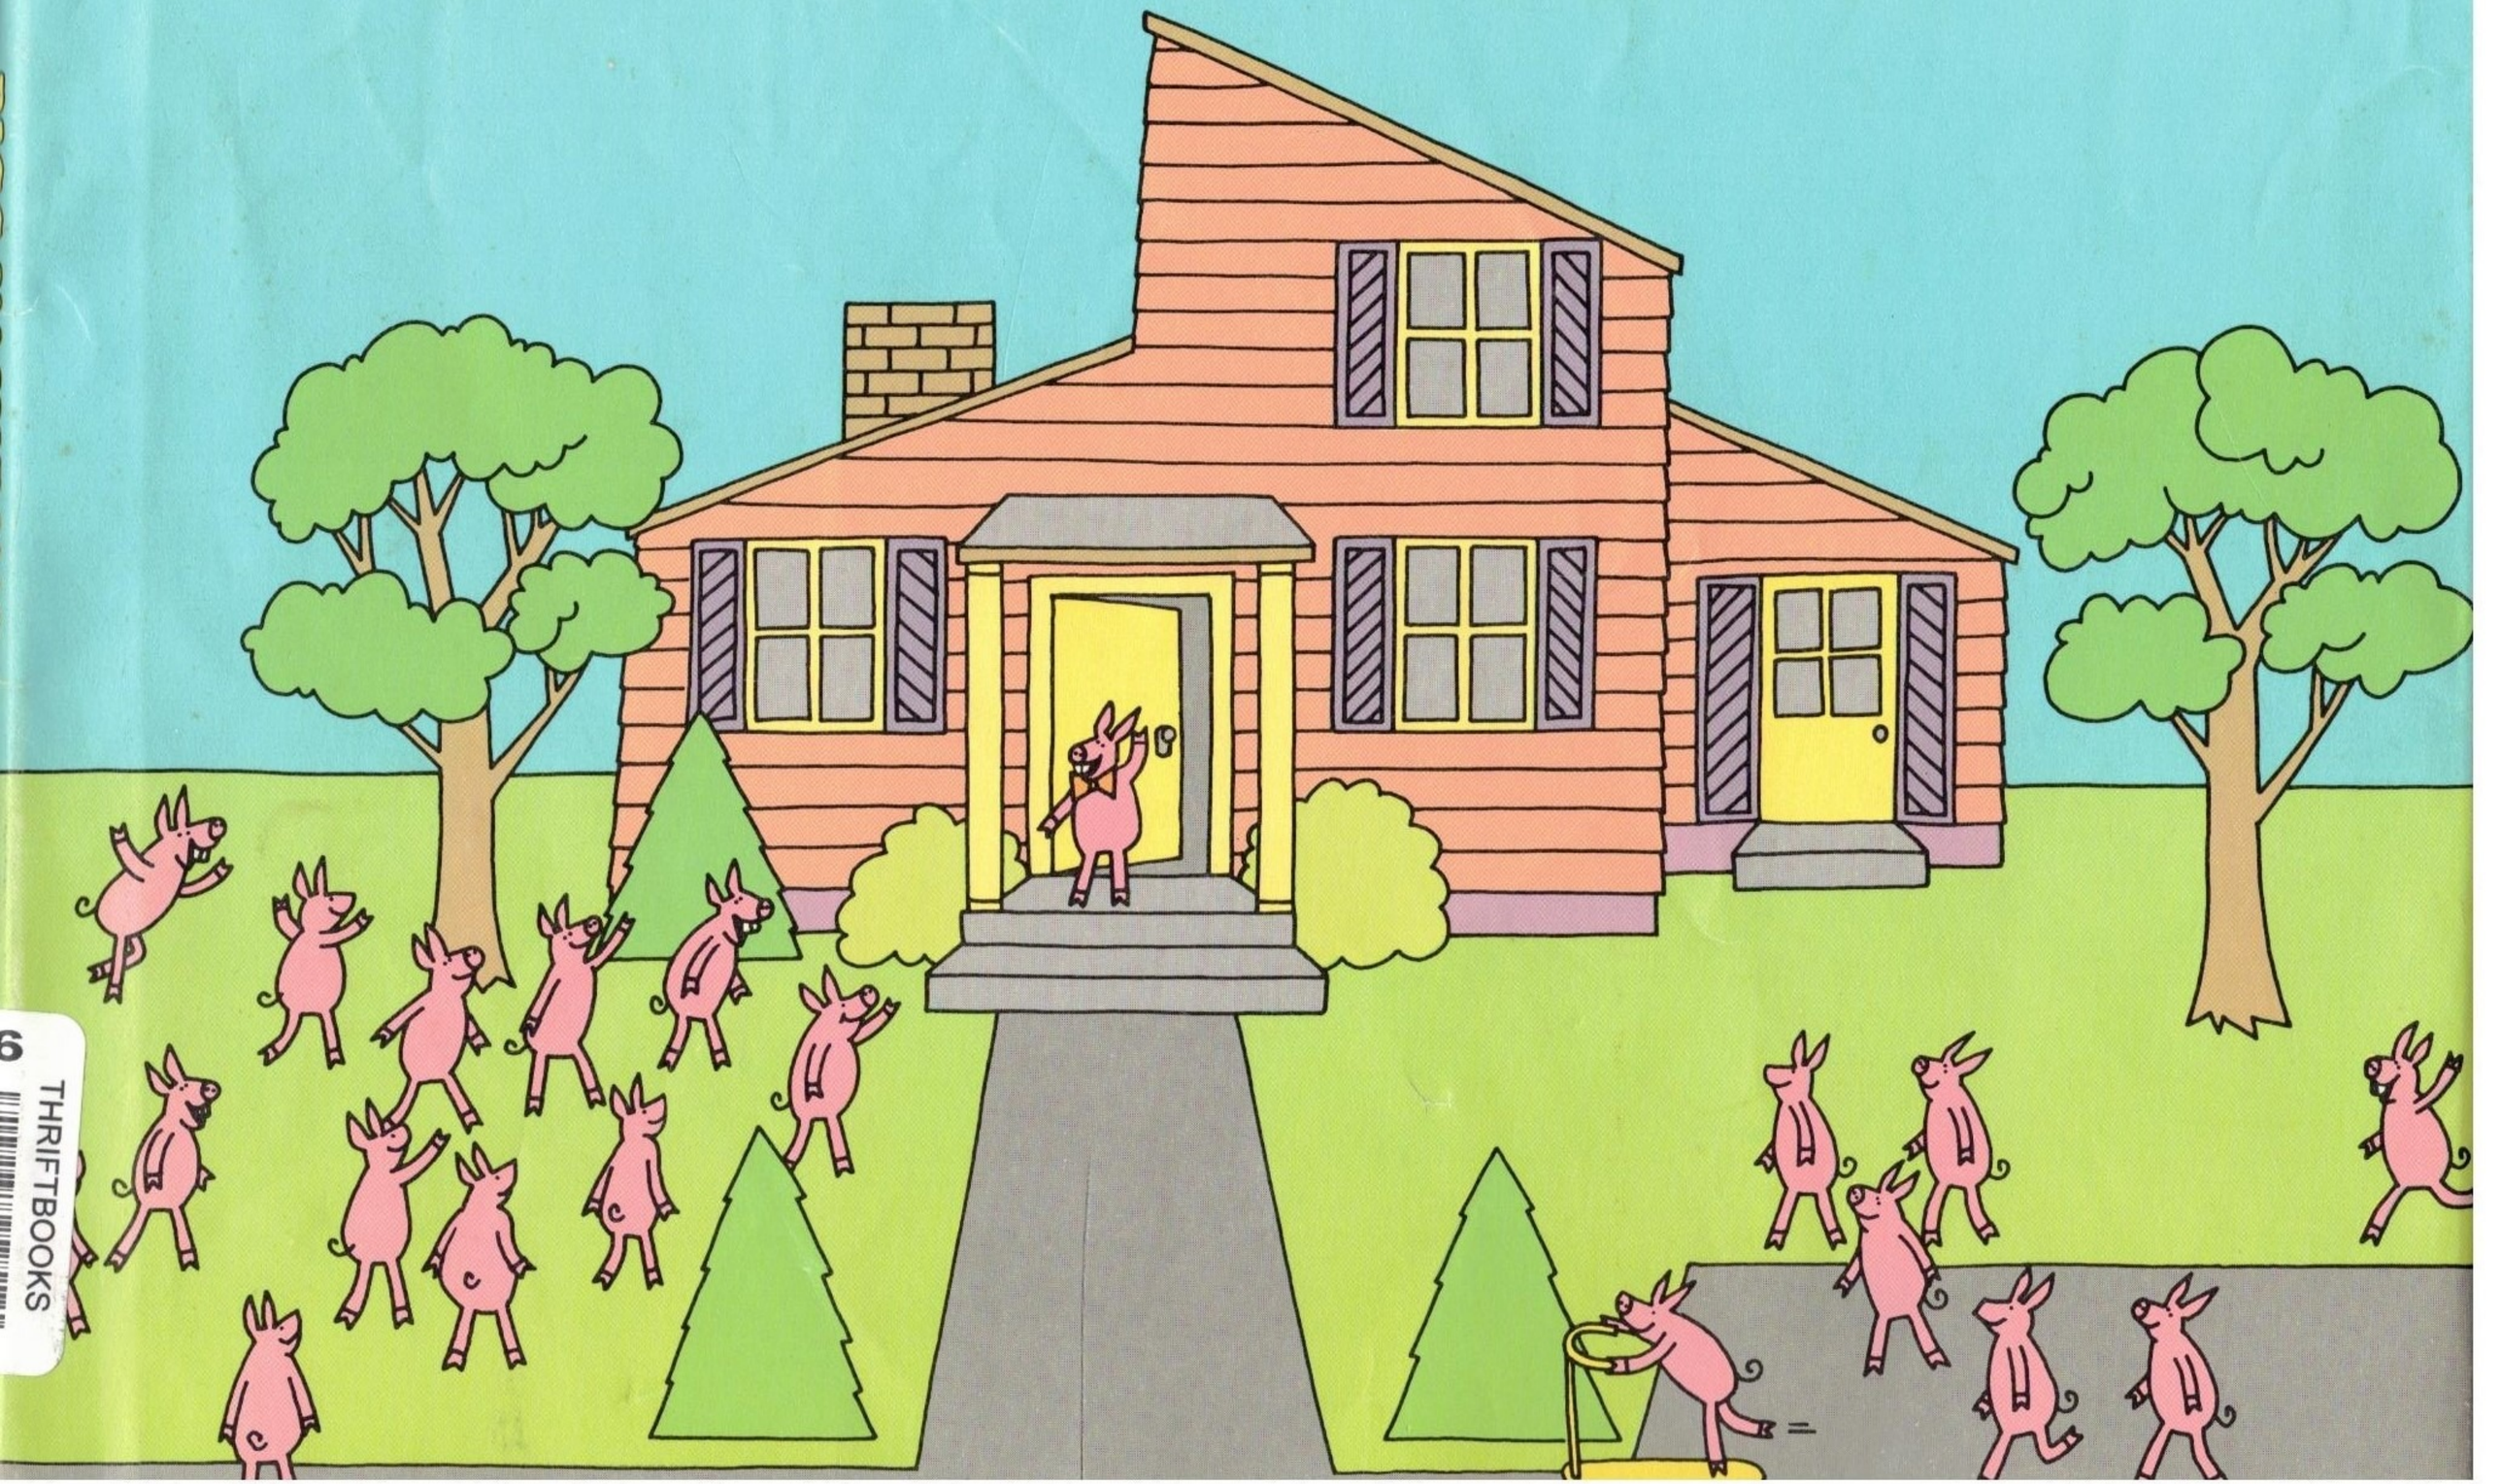
PIGS IN HIDING



THRIFTBOOKS

Pigs in plants, pigs under pillows, pigs behind paintings—anything goes in this hilarious game of hide-and-seek!

Everyone is having fun in this madcap household of pigs except the little pig who can't find his fellow players. Young readers, who gleefully see what he cannot, will laugh out loud as they find pigs in hiding everywhere.

Arlene Dubanevich's riotously funny first book will keep preschoolers giggling as they discover how one pig's inventiveness outsmarts his piggy friends.

Arlene Dubanevich is an American children's book author. His books are often full of animals, especially pigs! as in his famous book "William pig", or in "Hide-seek pigs". Arlene Dubanevich was born in Vermont, in the northeast of the United States, between Quebec and Massachusetts. She studied at the Rhode Island School of Design, where she obtained a BFA (Bachelor of Fine Arts, diploma in the artistic and audio-visual field). She and her husband live in Portland, Connecticut. Pigs in Hiding is the first book she has both written and illustrated.
